Join your colleagues at the annual CHICATA "Shop Talk" meeting. "Shop Talk" is an informal and unstructured open forum for the discussion of virtually any topic of interest to professional translators and interpreters. The topics that will be covered during this meeting will include some of the survey ideas received by the members:

How to get started, run, build and market the translation and interpreting business
(tips from expert members)

Available electronic tools for translators
(translation memory software, etc)

Best business practices: member's opinions
(open microphone)

Working with Agencies
(open microphone and feedback from expert members)

..and don't forget to join us afterwards for dinner at:
Jury's Food & Drink, 4337 N. Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, Illinois
